

Not Enough Apologies

- A Wisconsin Public Television documentary that explores how adverse childhood experiences can result in changes to the brain, leading to behavioral and mental health problems.
- Discover how Wisconsin is working to be responsive to trauma.
- Panelists will answer your questions regarding the documentary after the showing.

- Chuck Price, Director of Health and Human Services, Waupaca County
- Shawne N. Judnic, MS, LPC, Wood County Human Services

• Glenn Zipperer, LCSW, Aspirus Riverview Behavioral Health

• Kurt Heuer, Operations Director - Boys and Girls Club

• Liz Gosse, BS in Psychology, Social Work Certificate, Youth for Christ-Juvenile Justice Ministries

Join us August 21st
5:00 p.m. - 7:30 p.m.

Event will be held at
McMillan Memorial
Library

The event is FREE

Agenda:

5:00 - 5:30 p.m.	Dinner
5:30 - 6:30 p.m.	Documentary
6:30 - 7:30 p.m.	Panel

Childcare will be provided

Panelists are experts from an assortment of youth serving agencies.

To RSVP:

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/NotEnoughApologies>

OR
Contact David Strong

Email: dstrong@co.wood.wi.us

Phone: (715) 421-8948

