

COURTS / CLERK OF COURT

The Clerk of Court's office is open to the public for all services, however, social distancing will be enforced. Cash payments for fines (bring exact change) may be made at the front door security station.

Court is being held, however, masks are required in the courtrooms and social distancing will be enforced. Contact the individual branch for permission to appear by telephone.